AYER'S
CHERRY PECTORAL,
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD MASS 20th Dec 185 . DR. J C AYER I ... state to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs Hoarseness In ... and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold ... is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints. EBEN KNIGHT M D

A B MORTLEY Esq of UTICA N Y writes I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it ... I believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty five dollars for a bottle than do without it or take any other remedy."

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD MISS Feb 7, 18 . BROTHER AYER I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup and the chest diseases of children We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M. D.

AMOS LEE Esq MONTEREY IA writes 3d Jan, 1 . I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks took many medicines without relief finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs less than one half the bottle made me completely well Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy and we esteem you Doctor and your remedies as the poor man's friend

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, PA., Feb 4, 185 . SIR Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years. HENRY L PARKS, Merchant.

A. A RAMSEY M D ALBION MONROE Co, IOWA, writes Sept. 6, 1855 During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients or curing such as are curable

We might add volumes of evidence but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial.

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach, but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE NEW YORK CITY March 5, 1856. DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief. She was steadily failing until Dr. Strong of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine We bless his kindness as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day. She is not yet as strong as she used to be but is free from her cough, and calls herself well. Yours, with gratitude and regard ORLANDO SHELBY of SHELBYVILLE.

Consumptives do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues. — Philadelphia Ledger

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men. They are safe and pleasant to take but powerful to cure Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are at the same time, in diminished doses, the safest and best physic that can be employed for children. Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take; and being purely vegetable are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints —

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints Rheumatism Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine Scrofula or King's Evil. They also by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

REMOVAL.

The Office of the DAILY AND WEEKLY OREGONIAN has been removed to Carter's new brick block, corner of Front and Washington streets, up stairs. Entrance on Washington street, first door from Front.

Change of Tactics

We learn from recent dispatches that the members of Congress who claim to be Democrats at a caucus just held decided that their party in order to secure popular confidence must no longer oppose the war, but insist on its vigorous prosecution. This action, though late, is sensible. We "commend the unjust stewards, in that they have done wisely." The motive to be sure is transparent, and is no higher or better than mere policy. They see that the people will no longer trust those who oppose the Government, and actually aid and comfort the rebellion, and they know that to retrieve their lost political fortunes it is necessary for them to make a show of loyalty, even if it is only a show. We could give them credit for sincerity, if instead of reorganizing and reviving a faction, because they want to be party leaders, they would cordially unite with the friends of the Union, and do everything in their power to secure its triumph over treason. But their action in seeking for political purposes to divide the strength and the energy of the loyal States, looks much less like patriotism than it does like party ambition. If the earnest prosecution of the war is their only object, why this eternal harping about Democracy? Why not act frankly in support of the Government and its measures till the war is over and then, if need be, talk about rebuilding the waste places and the ruins of their party? What can they do, to prove the sincerity of their professions, except while they support the Government? We can see nothing in their conduct hitherto to justify confidence in their promises—we do not believe the people will trust them while they stand aloof from the Government, and claim that they must preserve their party organization, at a time when there can be only two parties, and one must be that of traitors. The whole scheme is an artful dodge, contrived to deceive the unwary, and to draw back from the ranks of patriotism the masses who have not allowed their former political prejudices to stand in the way of their duty to their country. Possibly some of the mere politicians, who have professed to be Union men for the sake of office and patronage—obtaining honor by false pretenses—and have bitterly deceived those who trusted them—may go with their old partners, that will not be surprising, as they change front whenever it pays, and as since their hypocrisy has been detected, they have found that they can make nothing more out of the credulity of Union men. Let them go, we have learned a lesson which is worth the loss of their support, and we trust that sincere patriots will never again have occasion to be ashamed because they have confided in adroit demagogues, who think more of their Democracy than of their duty, and use the positions and influence, given to them from good motives, only as a means to accomplish political and public mischief. Far different, however, has been and will continue to be the course of the loyal people of the North. They insist on the vigorous prosecution of the war, and upon crushing the rebellion, no matter what stands in the way, and they want and will support no political organization, which does not strive solely and distinctly for the accomplishment of this end. The new trick will be despised and repudiated by them, and Democratic politicians will find that the only way to be popular is to be patriotic—that neither Democracy nor slavery, the god of its idolatry, must be considered when the life of the nation is in danger.

A RICH LEGAL PROCEEDING.—A novel proceeding recently took place at the session of court in Warren county, Pennsylvania, which proves that the dry desert of the law is now and then enlivened by some oasis of fun not laid down in the chart of Coke and Littleton. The members of the bar of that county presented to the court, Judge Johnston presiding, a petition asking the Court in consideration of the fact that legal business had become dull to select two members of the Warren bar to attend to the business of the profession, while the rest of them should be assigned some respectable and useful employment, and that a tax should be levied on those who should be assigned employment outside of the bar, for the support of the two who should remain. The matter was taken under consideration. We congratulate the good people of Warren county on the prospect of having all but two of their lawyers assigned, at their own request, to "some respectable and useful employment."

Not a bad idea, that! How would it do to try the experiment in this State? The difficulty would be, we expect, that none would be willing to do the law work if they were obliged to depend for support on what the balance earned while pursuing "some respectable and useful employment."

NO NEWS.—Our California exchanges, from which, in the absence of dispatches, we obtain the latest intelligence, report that there was no Eastern news on the 26th December. The Pacific arrived at San Francisco on that day, and as we learn from Mr. Lyons, telegraph operator in this city, was to leave on the 30th. He received a dispatch to that effect from San Francisco.

Negro Worshipers

The climax of severity with most of the rabid Democracy seems to consist in denouncing all loyal men as negro worshipers. That word with them goes the whole length of the English language, and there is nothing else to say by way of denunciation. Now, as we think that calling names is rather a proof of bad taste and a weak cause than an argument we can afford to leave that epithet to our opponents, but we shall let the people see them tell us who worship negroes more than those who prefer slavery to the Union, and would sacrifice everything valuable or sacred in the world for the sake of keeping and worshiping their negroes as slaves. We believe worshipers of mammon—but they simply love gold and want as much of it as possible—our pro-slavery negro worshipers love negroes as slaves—as property—and want as many of them as possible. If their conduct does not amount to devout worship we are at a loss to imagine what more they could do to make it so. No Hindoo or heathen in all their blind superstition ever sacrificed so much to Juggernaut, or any other stupid deity, as Democrats North and South have for years offered and given up to the demon of slavery in their worship of the negro. They sold themselves, their country and even liberty to prove their devotion, and now in sack cloth and ashes they mourn because their shrine is broken down by an indignant nation who will permit this stupendous idolatry no longer and cry that the Administration has taken away their god, and they will not be comforted or reconciled till he is restored to his blood stained throne. Has any Union man, has any abolitionist even, worshiped the negro with anything like this devotion or sacrificed one thousandth part as much to prove how highly he values his "colored brethren"?

HOW THEY TAKE IT IN CHARLESTON.—A correspondent of the Augusta (Ga.) Sentinel writes from Charleston:

Yankee gunners keep up their practice on Sumter and punch and hammer away day and night without accomplishing anything. The confederate flag, kept up to their efforts defiantly floats above the ruins. When the seige is raised, if a live Yankee is allowed to get to Sumter he'll make his fortune by ... old brass and iron. Yesterday morning the iron clads tried Moultrie but soon got ... out. The bombardment was furious for a while ... bat...ting much ammunition and some time ... the Monitor ... At ... five 100 pound Parrott shells were thrown ... city. ... scattered ... in the lower part of the city ... the way in which they were ... about that ... was trying to hit somebody. The City Hall building had a hole punched in one corner and some of the marble cornice knocked away. One struck the telegraph office and the operators cut stick. One smashed through the roof of a house on Queen street and several falling in this neighborhood the frightened denizens "vamosed" to the tune of ... quick. Several fell in the vicinity of the banks on Broad street and East Bay, tearing up the streets smashing window panes, and kicking up the mischief generally. One went crashing through the Mechanics and Planters Bank ... and it is evident I think that Gilmore was after making a deposit. Whether he will be regularly booked and his currency taken at par, is more than I can say. Several counting rooms on the wharves were slightly smashed, but during the entire shelling, from about 9½ to 1 o'clock no one was hurt. Some time ago it was thundered from the northern press that, ere the ides of November, Charleston would be in ashes and straightway all Yankee land waxed merry and prepared for a grand jubilee. Dahlgren screwed his courage to the sticking place. Gilmore plied the spade and pick, trained his heavy guns, and burped upon "Greek fire." We still live—and the "hot bed of rebellion" is not yet in ashes.

PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.—These are President making times. The Washington correspondent of the New York Times under date of November 27th, gives this hint of a military combination for the Presidential canvass of 1864:

The enthusiasm for Grant begins to be wild. It would be a falsification of current history to suppress the fact that thousands name him as the next President. In the sudden supremacy of grateful and exultant military feeling, men strike ... over Grant and Butler, and commit the country to their care.

Commenting on this the Sacramento Union says:

Such a man cannot be made the tool of demagogues. His proper position (that of Lieut General of the Union armies) will doubtless be attained in due season, through the high appreciation the President has of his talents and services. Beyond that if we are not mistaken this true and splendid soldier will not care to go, while the country needs a head and a heart like his in the field. Certainly Grant will not lend his name to any scheme for dividing the Union men and exalting a Copperhead while there remains a rebel regiment in arms. And it is quite probable that if Grant lives he will one day be nominated for and elected to the Presidency. He must, when the country is safe, accept the penalty of his fame."

NEGRO TROOPS.—Under this head we find rather to our surprise the following editorial in the St Louis Republican:

A letter from Booneville says there are two hundred negro men in that town brought in by their owners to be enrolled in the army at St ... Joseph ... So it is in many other parts. They are flocking into the recruiting stations by hundreds and will number thousands before the draft takes place. All these negro recruits will lessen the demand ... to make up the quota for Missouri a little ... 000. There are one or two thousand ... shouldered negroes going about the streets of St Louis doing nothing ... might well be ... soldiers. Talking of the draft Missouri is justly entitled to a credit for three or four thousand ... now serving among Kansas troops who were ... stolen by Jim Lane and enrolled in the army ... run off from their masters and enlisted. Illinois claimed and was allowed credit for nearly ... hardy volunteer who enlisted in Missouri regiment. The rule thus established ought ... a like credit to Missouri in ... and the State lost the entire value of the ... question. Ought not this matter to be inquired into by our military authorities?

HOOKER'S BATTLE ABOVE THE CLOUDS.—Quartermaster General Meigs in his lively account of the three days conflict before Chattanooga mentions the notable fact that in Gen Hooker's fight ... slopes of Lookout Mountain ... which the battle was fought above the clouds which concealed him from our view but from which ... There is on record at least one parallel ... Russian campaign of Napoleon in the ... Alps in 17... The battle of the Col ... March 1797 ... the ... tillery thundering in the very ... battery ... alry charged and performed their evolutions ... through snow three feet thick ...

HARD ON STEAMERS.—The high wind yesterday afternoon, besides shaking the "dry bones" of steamboat sepulchre imperilled for a short time the steamers Julia and Mountain Buck, which were only kept from being blown ashore by the strenuous efforts of a strong party of men, aided by long poles.

HOSPITAL LETTERS.—We quote the following from a letter written by an army nurse in one of the Virginia Hospitals. It gives a sad but interesting recital of the events of a part of a day, and will show better than any argument can words, the wants and the sufferings of the Soldiers:

There are fifty ... fever ... shakes ... [illegible]

A few minutes more and the breath ceases, the sacrifice of the young Christian hero is complete—

"And he was not for God took him."

THE PORT ANGELES CALAMITY.—We learn from a reliable correspondent, who has just been at Port Angeles, that some errors occurred in the statement of the terrible calamity, which happened at that place on the evening of December 16th. He writes:

The immense body of water to the depth of some twenty feet came rushing down the valley bringing with it immense logs, trees, and stumps and swept all before it. The Custom House buildings, together with three or four small buildings, were utterly destroyed but only those situated in the valley (an inconsiderable portion of the town). The Deputy Collector Anderson and Inspector Goodell were instantly killed. Mrs Victor Smith displayed wonderful presence of mind and heroism and thereby saved her four children as well as herself uninjured except some light bruises she received. A colored woman residing in Mr Smith's family was somewhat, but not seriously injured, which comprise all the injuries ... received to their persons. Letter from Olympia

OLYMPIA, Jan 1 1864

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

I send you all the items of interest that have transpired since I last wrote you in and about this place up to the present writing.

You know that a few days prior to the adjournment over the holidays of the Legislature the Council effected a permanent organization in rather a novel way, by passing a resolution declaring the temporary officers appointed at the opening of the Council to be the permanent officers for the remainder of the session. Although by this arrangement it gave the most important place to who are by themselves termed Democrats, thus settling the ... could be there ... with ... probability ... there would have ... no organization ... the ... for the session, and nothing would have been ... in the way of legislation. It is true there ... being done by the present Assembly ... the ... affairs ... upon the division of the Territory and the formation of Idaho Territory.

Some eighteen bills and two or three memorials were introduced in the House prior to adjournment over the holidays, several of which passed both branches. The most important of these are—an act granting to the corporate authorities of Vancouver ... to collect all licenses which were before ... by the county of Clarke and ... the money towards the erection of a wharf and warehouse at that place ... also an act allowing J ... Lawrence executor of the estate of Mrs Short to sell the real estate of a minor heir ... private sale ... an act granting a ferry license for a ferry across the Columbia river at the mouth of the ... An act has also been introduced levying a ... tax on all Chinese or other M... ... in the Territory which is thought will ... the further immigration of this unprofitable ... into the country.

A memorial has ... passed praying Congress to ... the military road from Ft Steilacoom across the ... to Walla Walla and one or two other ... have been introduced bearing upon the same ... each claiming its own particular locality ... a wagon road across the Cascade Mountains. There are supposed to be three practicable ... across these mountains and each route has its interested friends.

As is customary the House of Representatives have passed also a set of Union resolutions a copy of which is herewith annexed and notwithstanding the fact that the people of the Territory have been condemned as secessionists, treason sympathizers, etc by a certain official organ, because they refused to be led by the dictation of its known editor, still I think when you read these resolutions you will be more than ever convinced of the falsity of the charge and of the brazen impudence which prompted this Ananias in his endeavor to defy and vilify the purity of our people. Here are the resolutions:

WHEREAS This country is now engaged in a struggle involving in its issue the existence of the Federal Union and requiring the existence and co-operation of every citizen either with arms in the field or by his hearty support and encouragement at home and

WHEREAS, The great question of National preservation is ... all party considerations therefore be it

Resolved That we approve of the past measures of the Administration of Abraham Lincoln particularly as directed towards the suppression of the existing rebellion as honest and patriotic ... to the wisdom in the results which have already ensued.

Resolved That we approve of the late suspension of the writ of habeas corpus as we believe with the President that it was necessary and therefore constitutional as that instrument says that it shall not be suspended unless in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

Resolved That whatever may be the difference in our opinions as to the state which the negro occupies in relation to the Federal Government we believe that the Emancipation Proclamation ... and a wise measure certain in its results to strengthen our own arms and weaken those of our enemies.

Resolved, That we will give our hearty support to this Administration and to its successors (of whatever political ... in the prosecution of the existing war until peace is finally established in this distracted country reserving until that event the discussion of issues which are calculated to divide our councils, and strengthen the hopes of our enemies. That we regard all distinctions taken in such times as these between the support of the Administration and of the Government, as captious and unpatriotic. It being impossible to support the Government and sustain the war and at the same time oppose the Administration in its war measures.

In matters of local news outside of the Legislature I have nothing to report of material interest, except it be that the U S war steamer Narragansett S W Woodworth, commander, came up to this place on Wednesday last and was received by his Excellency the Governor in due and ancient form. A high toned ball was given the officers of this vessel at the Washington Hall last night, and I am informed that everything went off in grand style, including numerous champagne corks and such like. There are also two barks, one schooner and two steamers in the offing and their presence gives a greater appearance of business than has been seen here for some time.

Yours, U E H

MARSHAL FOREY AND GENERAL SCOTT—THE OLD WARRIORS UNITING THEIR TEARS.—Marshal Forey the hero of Mexico, left this port on Saturday last for France, in the steamship Panama. A day or two before his departure he called upon Gen Scott, when the two heroes, as it is said had a very free conversation on Mexican affairs. This interview between the veterans says the Herald, was extremely affecting, both parties being profoundly touched at each other's presence—Marshal Forey by the remembrance of the laurels won by the illustrious hero of so many battles. Gen Scott by the respect shown to him by the victor of the Arabs, of the Russians and of the Austrians. When they parted both had tears in their eyes. Why the Marshal should have been so strangely affected does not appear in the account but one can readily see the occasion for the General's tears, for he had just been assured that the Frenchman's Imperial master had never attempted anything adverse to the American Union, and never would. Such an assurance, made on so affecting an occasion, and in a spirit so generous, would have drawn tears from a veteran of far fewer years than Gen Scott can boast of even if there should happen to be some slight grounds for doubting the authority of the Marshal to make it. In an editorial comment on this scene, the Herald further says:

This touching incident, when reported to Louis Napoleon by Gen Forey, will doubtless have a good effect upon the mind of the Emperor touching his true policy in reference to Mexico. In fact, if with the return of Gen Forey to France we hear of the abandonment of the Mexican Empire of Maximilian we shall attribute to proceeding in no small degree to this remarkable meeting between the American and French conquerors of Mexico.

HOW A MAINE REGIMENT GOT A SUPPLY OF STOCKINGS.—The small British vessels running between here and the provinces furnish opportunities for smuggling, though this is done upon so petty a scale that the ... government is by no means commensurate with the risk to the smugglers. It is not customary for the inspectors to oversee very closely the discharging of these vessels, which are simply visited from time to time, one inspector frequently having the supervision of several of them. But on one occasion an inspector suspecting something wrong devoted his whole attention to the discharge of one of these craft. The captain was evidently uneasy—the work of discharging cargo went on slowly—every one seemed impatient but the imperturbable inspector, who patiently watched the proceedings sealing up the hatches when he went to his meals. Finally the captain seeing that his detention in port was likely to be long and expensive ... that he had on board five hundred pairs of stockings which were forwarded by Union sympathizers in Nova Scotia as a gift to a Maine regiment ... the countenance of the inspector ... this sudden development ... Union sympathy in Nova Scotia and the Collector ... of the imputation ... regiment ... Nova Scotia ... feeling toward our government which is finally ... published advices from that quarter.

AN ATTORNEY GENERAL AT VANCOUVER.—In the Supreme Court of Vancouver Island lately the Chief Justice was about rendering a decision when the Attorney General Cary interrupted and claimed the right to argue the case. Ring and McCreight on the opposite side objected, and a wordy war ensued between the counsel which the Chief Justice ... by deciding that Cary had no right as ... At the conclusion of Cary's argument, ... the Chief Justice declined to ex... the litigants orally next day, whereupon Cary waxed warm and said a few very ... things and before leaving the Court announced his intention in future to recommend all clients who might apply to him for advice, to cut their throats before coming into this Court for justice.

WITHOUT A TITLE.—A well known gentleman of Winchester Virginia is in the habit of relating a very amusing anecdote on the great love that Americans have for naval and military titles. Crossing the Potomac into Virginia with his horse in a ferry boat, the ferryman said:

"Major, I wish that you would lead your horse a little forward."

He immediately did so, observing "I am not a Major and you need not call me one."

"Well Kurnel," replied the ferryman, "I ax your pardon, and I'll not call you so no more."

Having arrived at the landing place, he led his horse out of the boat and said:

"My good friend, I am a very plain man. I am neither a colonel or a major—I have no title at all, and I don't like them. How much have I to pay you?"

The ferryman looked at him surprisingly, and said:

"You are the first white man I have ever crossed on this ferry that warn't just nobody at all and I swar I'll charge you nothing."

"Madam, a good many persons were disturbed at the concert last night by the crying of your baby." "Well I do wonder that such people will go to concerts!"

"I am afraid you'll forget me wife, while I'm away," said a brave officer.

"Never fear, my dear, the longer you are away in your country's service the better I shall like you."

TO OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS.—We hope that in ... of any of our subscribers failing to get ... paper as usual, they will inform us of the fact ... Mr M M SOUTHWORTH will, from to ... on the route south of Alder street, and Mr ... DOHERTY north of the same line. Not having ... furnished with a complete list of our city ... subscribers by our late carrier, they may find it difficult ... once meet the wants of all our old patrons.

NOTICE TO CITY PATRONS.—Mr L M Parr ... voluntarily relinquished his connection ... the OREGONIAN, as carrier, is no longer authorized to collect or receipt for any moneys due this office.

STEAMER E D BAKER.—This tanto little ... boat, which commenced running only ... spring is no more to cleave the waters of ... Willamette and Columbia. Never again ... her shrill whistle awaken echoes among ... dense and lofty conifera on a thousand ... or startle the fierce eyed eaglet in ... soaring eyrie. No more will her lance ... ascend the irate rapid, or as of yore ... to the steady helm beneath the cunning ... the pilot as he steered her safely through ... threatening whirl. Her great iron nerves ... pulsate with the life stream ... heart of fire. She is gone—her identity lost—swallowed up in that great laboratory of progress which compensates the past by organizing its debris into new and more ... of vital energy. Like her great ... her career has been all too brief ... him she was sacrificed in a vortex which threatened to engulf much it was her office ... preserve. Her machinery and upper works being transferred to Canemah for use on a new hull already built by the People's Transportation Company to run on the Upper Willamette, and her hull, repaired, will take its ... among those to be used for wharf boats ... barges as circumstances of trade require.

LADY SKATERS TO-DAY.—It is in contemplation by very many of our city ladies to visit the Crystal Lake to day, if it be not too cold and gusty, and essay a practise of their tiny feet at gliding on skates over its glassy surface. The custom now almost universally obtains during winter at the East, and there is certainly no good reason why our lady friends here should be debarred from what has been pronounced an agreeable, graceful and health giving exercise. Few sights are more enchanting than a bevy of laughing eyed girls, each escorted by a gentleman, sailing away, hither and yonder, now describing delicate initials on the ice and anon going on a gigantic scale through the figures of a quadrille march, their sylph like forms clad in cosy furs, and variegated ribbons flaunting gaily from tufted and ... fitting hoods, like streamers from the mast-head of a Yankee clipper on the Fourth of July.

RETURN OF THE HUNT.—The Wilson G Hunt returned to this city yesterday afternoon before two o'clock, having been unable to reach the Cascades, owing to the drift ice in the river, and the violence of the head wind, which Capt Wolfe pronounced the heaviest gale he ever experienced. Mr. Holland, W ... & Co's Express Messenger informs us that ... commenced blowing about 10 miles above Vancouver, and continued until she reached Lackwood Point, about 25 miles below the Cascades, where she put about and returned. Ice was forming rapidly in the Upper Columbia, although the drifting blocks were only two or three inches thick at noon. The river as far as the eye could reach below the mouth of the Willamette, was covered with drifting ... of ice.

SAILING OF THE BARK INDUSTRY.—This vessel was put on yesterday to load apples for San Francisco, and as there were more ready than she could receive, it was expected that she would fill up last night, and be towed to the mouth of the Columbia to-day. Her cargo was estimated would comprise between 8000 and 9,000 boxes of choice fruit. Allen & Lewis, Richards & McCraken, and Knapp, Burrell & Co are the principal shippers. It was reported late last evening that arrangements had been made for the Wilson G Hunt to tow the bark down to the bar, in which event we may anticipate her arrival at San Francisco in less than a week from the time she commenced loading.

REV MR WALKER'S LECTURE.—We regret that the weather on Monday evening was so severely cold, that only a comparatively small audience listened to Mr Walker's very instructive lecture upon naval affairs. It contained a vast amount of statistical and historical information, and if published, would furnish to the community, a very desirable and valuable amount of knowledge in regard to this most potent arm of national defence. We sincerely hope that Mr Walker, who is one of our oldest and most intelligent citizens, and a highly esteemed clergyman will have an opportunity to repeat his address under more favorable and less chilling circumstances.

THE COLD A CAUSE OF REJOICING.—The truth of an old adage that "it is an ill wind that blows no one good," was exemplified in the occasion yesterday presented for a skating exhibition, in which both sexes and all ages—"within the meaning of the statute"—participated with huge delight. It is believed that during the day and evening more than three hundred different skaters enjoyed ... skating ecstacy on Couch's Crystal Lake.

BURNING CHIMNEY.—The soot in a chimney of the French Laundry ignited early last evening, the blaze ascending some five or six feet in clear air, much to the momentary terror of the neighborhood. A handful of common salt thrown upon the fire in the fire-place or stove will be found efficacious in smothering the flame in such cases.

To The Public.

WOULD HEREBY CALL THE ATTENtion of the public to the fact that on the first of May, ..., they will be called upon by the United States Assessor to make statement of Income for the year 18.. and as the year 1863 is just ended, it would be well for every one to make up their accounts for the 1 year, wh... every thing fresh in their memory and be ready to make statement when called upon by the Assessor.

Under the ruling of the Commissioner of Internal revenue persons can only deduct expenses for repairs etc. in the amount received from the same property on which the expenditure has been made. For instance—a person receives $500 for rents he can deduct ... but no amount it is necessary to repair such property from which rents are derived, the same rule applies to steamboats, ... and other like property. But all moneys derived from interest on notes, Bonds, Mortgages and from dividends must be returned as Income although a portion or the whole has been expended in repairing buildings, etc.

Persons will prepare their accounts and statements showing amounts received and the sources from whence derived, amount expended and for what purpose, the blank forms and blanks which will be furnished them by the Assessor, a correct return can be made.

THERE is no other way to cure diseases but by first purifying the whole system so as to create a healthy circulation.

The first medical men of the age agree with us, that no disease of any extent can be cured without using such medicines as will act directly upon the blood. Why many medical men have failed to cure chronic diseases is, because the medicines used have not been such as will act beneficially on the blood.

The many thousands of bottles which have been used by the public, and the many gallons and barrels supplied to the physicians, warrant us in saying that the last two years we have been more successful with our Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup in curing hopeless cases of chronic diseases than have any other remedies in the hands of physicians, or before the public.

It is now admitted that no combination known to the profession acts so promptly upon diseases as our SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND LIVER SYRUP.

THE PACIFIC left San Francisco for this place, on Wednesday, Dec 30th, and is consequently six days out. So says a private dispatch received last night. It is thought that the present quantity of ice in the river will not seriously interfere with her upward navigation.

THERMOMETRICAL.—At 7 A M, yesterday, the mercury stood at 15°, rising at noon, protected from the wind and exposed to the sun, to 40°, and descending until 7 P. M., when it stood at 21°—two degrees lower than the night previous at the same hour.

Major Sprott and his Tortoise-shell Spectacles.

Major Sprott was an inveterate gamester, The highest stakes were powerless to make him flinch There were public gaming tables at Aix la Chapelle and the Major looked in for two two or three hours every afternoon at the Kursaal. As a rule although a careless player, he won largely, one night he carried away 3,000 Napoleons on another he broke the bank, which was limited to 4,000 But it was observed that he never approached the roulette table, addicting himself always to the rouge et noir or trente et quarante, a game, which, as you should know, is played with cards, and in no way depends upon the treacherous revolutions of an ivory ball

It was in private that Major Sprott made his largest gains At lansquenet at piquet, at escarte, at whist at vingt et un he was unconquerable He always won and that too, by seemingly the most indifferent sums. It was impossible to bring against him the slight st accusation of foul play, but at last the granddukes and the ambassadors, whose pockets he emptied, began to look with some uneasiness upon the terrible American He didn t play on a system, he scarcely looked at his cards, and yet he always won

There was at this time at Aix a dashing adventurer of Irish extraction, whose real name is believed to have been O Kelly, but who called himself the Baron de Kolli He had been mixed up in the mysterious and disreputable intrigue by means of which the British Government endeavored but unsuccessfully, to liberate Ferdinand of Spain (the Virgin's petticoat embroiderer) from the clutches of Napoleon at Bayonne The Baron de Kolli had come to Aix on the chance of something turning up in the way of adventure or of swindling and lived from hand to mouth like a high mettled gamester as he was He could not gain admission to the patrician society in which Major Sprott was a welcome guest, but to the Kursaal, and to the trente et quarante table the Baron de Kolli came afternoon after afternoon, playing a little when the odds were favorable, but occupying himself much more with watching the game of the man with the tortoise shell spectacles

It chanced one day that, as Major Sprott was bending across the green baize to strike a handful of Napoleons on the rouge, one of the strings which, besides the tortoise shell confined the spectacles to his head, became loosened, and these appendages slid off his nose and fell on the floor He stooped rapidly to pick them up, but the Baron de Kolli had been beforehand with him He had placed the heel of one of his Hessian boots on the glasses, and crunched them into a hundred fragments

Major Sprott (he had won the stake, by the way,) looked extremely disconcerted, and turned toward the Irishman as if for an apology, but the latter coolly whispered

"I did it on purpose You may pick up the pieces, and put them in your pocket, if you like. I think I've spoilt your little game, my darlint"

Major Sprott angrily shrugged his shoulders, muttered something about an 'awkward boor" and, pocketing his winnings, turned to leave the room, when the Baron de Kolli laid his hand on his wrist

"You 'll just go on playing, my jewel," he whispered, "just for one little half hour I want to see how you'll get on without those cat's back barnacles of yours If you don't I declare that I'll pick a quarrel with you and blow your brains out before sunrise to morrow."

The Baron de Kolli looked as though he could be as good his word, and Major Sprott went on playing without his tortoise-shell spectacles He staked low, till the Baron whispered to him that unless he put on the Napoleons a little faster, he should be compelled to carry out his promise At the end of half an hour, Major Sprott had lost 800 Napoleons.

"And now," he said, familiarly, taking the Major's arm "we'll just stroll to the roulette room, and see what there's doing there."

"Tush! I don't want to be ruined," quoth Major Sprott. 'I play to win, and not to lose, Baron. Here, come this way, and we ll settle this little matter outside"

They walked into the garden of the Kursaal, and when they had reached a secluded nook, the American said

"I suppose you are not overburdened with worldly wealth Baron?"

"I am as poor as Job, or a gentleman could well be."

"I thought so, well, you have broken my spectacles, and spoilt, as you say, my little game, and besides, you have killed the goose that laid the golden eggs I could easily leave you baffled and uncertain, but I like peace and quietness, and would rather not have a spy watching my movements Here are five rouleaux, each containing a hundred Napoleons, for you to hold your tongue for forty-eight hours, by which time I shall be across the French frontier Will that do?"

The Baron bowed, and protested his eternal gratitude The Major gave him the money, which he lost within a fortnight at roulette

As for Major Sprott, he discharged his bill at the hotel, and leaving a handsome gratuity for the servants, left Aix the next morning in a post chaise for Belgium. He forgot, however, to bid farewell to the Princess Schmutzikoff and Mademoiselle Catin, and after his departure it was discovered that the rubies and diamonds he had been so liberal a dispenser of, were all paste

As for his tortoise shell spectacles, and the connection between those apparently harmless aids to weak sight, and his enormous gains at cards, that little mystery was not cleared up until ten years afterwards In 1825 a man named Gougenheim was tried before the criminal court of Assize at Cologne, charged with half a dozen acts of forgery and swindling He made, after conviction, a clear breast of it; and, as is usually the case with repentant rogues, volunteered the confession of a great many crimes of which he had never been suspected It appeared that, at the time of the Congress of Aix-la Chapelle, he had been in a large way of business as a manufacturer of playing cards Thousands of packs of the Devil's Book were wanted to assist the Congress at their deliberations, and Gougenheim furnished all He had been for a long time, and in nefarious transactions, in league with the pseudo Major Sprott, a Polish adventurer who had spent many years at the French galleys. The two worthies hit upon a very notable device On the engraved backs of the cards Gougenheim placed certain cabalistic marks, denoting their color and value quite invisible to the naked eye, but discernible by means of a powerful magnifier And the tortoise shell spectacles were simply very strong magnifying glasses

How Kolli ever got an inkling of the fraud was never discovered, but a large fortune had been realized by the tortoise shell spectacles before the disappearance of Major Sprott. Ere he finally levanted, however he contrived to swindle his confederate out of his share of the plunder, and, weighing all the pros and cons of the matter, and judging him by a purely human standard, I incline to think that Major Sprott, or whatever his name was, has every right to be reckoned as a great man

CHERRY PECTORAL,

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

Colds, Coughs, and Hoarseness.

BRIMFIELD MASS, 20th Dec, 1855

DR J C AYER I do not hesitate to say the best remedy I have ever found for Coughs, Hoarseness Influenza, and the concomitant symptoms of a Cold is your CHERRY PECTORAL. Its constant use in my practice and my family for the last ten years has shown it to possess superior virtues for the treatment of these complaints EBEN KNIGHT, M D

A B MORTLEY, Esq of UTICA N Y, writes "I have used your PECTORAL myself and in my family ever since you invented it and believe it the best medicine for its purpose ever put out. With a bad cold I should sooner pay twenty five dollars for a bottle than do without it, or take any other remedy"

Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza.

SPRINGFIELD, Miss., Feb 7, 1856

BROTHER AYER I will cheerfully certify your PECTORAL is the best remedy we possess for the cure of Whooping Cough, Croup, and the chest diseases of children We of your fraternity in the South appreciate your skill and commend your medicine to our people. HIRAM CONKLIN, M D

AMOS LEE Esq, MONTEREY, IA writes, 3d Jan, 1856, "I had a tedious Influenza, which confined me in doors six weeks took many medicines without relief finally tried your PECTORAL by the advice of our clergyman The first dose relieved the soreness in my throat and lungs, less than one half the bottle made me completely well Your medicines are the cheapest as well as the best we can buy, and we esteem you, Doctor, and your remedies as the poor man's friend"

Asthma or Phthisic, and Bronchitis.

WEST MANCHESTER, Pa, Feb 4, 1856

SIR Your CHERRY PECTORAL is performing marvellous cures in this section It has relieved several from alarming symptoms of consumption and is now curing a man who has labored under an affection of the lungs for the last forty years.

HENRY L. PARKS, Merchant

A A RAMSEY, M D ALBION MONROE Co, Iowa, writes Sept 6, 1855 "During my practice of many years I have found nothing equal to your CHERRY PECTORAL for giving ease and relief to consumptive patients, or curing such as are curable"

We might add volumes of evidence but the most convincing proof of the virtues of this remedy is found in its effects upon trial

Consumption.

Probably no one remedy has ever been known which cured so many and such dangerous cases as this. Some no human aid can reach, but even to those the CHERRY PECTORAL affords relief and comfort.

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK CITY, March 5, 1856

DOCTOR AYER, LOWELL I feel it a duty and a pleasure to inform you what your CHERRY PECTORAL has done for my wife She had been five months laboring under the dangerous symptoms of Consumption from which no aid we could procure gave her much relief She was steadily failing, until Dr. Strong, of this city, where we have come for advice, recommended a trial of your medicine We bless his kindness, as we do your skill, for she has recovered from that day She is not yet as strong as she used to be but is free from her cough, and calls herself well

Yours, with gratitude and regard,

ORLANDO SHELBY, of SHELBYVILLE

Consumptives, do not despair till you have tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It is made by one of the best medical chemists in the world and its cures all round us bespeak the high merits of its virtues —Philadelphia Ledger

Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

THE sciences of Chemistry and Medicine have been taxed their utmost to produce this best, most perfect purgative which is known to man Innumerable proofs are shown that these PILLS have virtues which surpass in excellence the ordinary medicines, and that they win unprecedentedly upon the esteem of all men They are safe and pleasant to take, but powerful to cure Their penetrating properties stimulate the vital activities of the body, remove the obstructions of its organs, purify the blood, and expel disease. They purge out the foul humors which breed and grow distemper, stimulate sluggish or disordered organs into their natural action and impart healthy tone with strength to the whole system Not only do they cure the every day complaints of every body but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects they are at the same time, in diminished doses the safest and best physic that can be employed for children Being sugar-coated they are pleasant to take and being purely vegetable, are free from any risk of harm. Cures have been made which surpass belief were they not substantiated by men of such exalted position and character as to forbid the suspicion of untruth Many eminent clergymen and physicians have lent their names to certify to the public the reliability of my remedies, while others have sent me the assurance of their conviction that my Preparations contribute immensely to the relief of my afflicted, suffering fellow men.

The Agent below named is pleased to furnish gratis my American Almanac, containing directions for their use and certificates of their cures of the following complaints —

Costiveness Bilious Complaints Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, and Pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil They also, by purifying the blood and stimulating the system, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach, such as Deafness, Partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability Derangements of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstruction of its functions.

Do not be put off by unprincipled dealers with some other pill they make more profit on. Ask for AYER'S PILLS, and take nothing else. No other they can give you compares with this in its intrinsic value or curative powers. The sick want the best aid there is for them, and they should have it.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER,
